SCHEDULE

Description	Details
Name of Project	Improve nutrition and reduce stunting using science and the arts
Head Contract	Agreement entered into between Griffith University and Australian Government Department of Foreign Affairs and Trade dated 23 August 2019 - a copy of which is attached as Annexure A.
Services	This project aims to improve nutritional, sanitation and hygiene-related knowledge, attitudes and practices using a culturally acceptable 'edutainment' intervention. It will provide a snapshot of the typical diets of families in the study area and assess nutritional status of residents in terms of body size (under or over weight status) and anaemia prevalence. It will also measure the prevalence and intensity of parasitic (soil transmitted helminths) infection in a rural area of Karangasem, East Bali. This project will develop a culturally appropriate health education intervention (a 'bondres' production) to improve knowledge, attitudes and behaviours relating to nutrition, hygiene and sanitation in a rural community in Karangasem District. The Health Education intervention will comprise a contemporary Balinese comedy/drama ('bondres'). Further, we will (1) assess nutritional status and undertake a dietary analysis, measure height, weight and extent of anaemia; (2) conduct a stool analysis to determine STH infection rates and intensity; and (3) provide anti-helminth medication. The Subcontractor will assist Griffith (1) to plan, develop and deliver the 'bondres' production; (2) undertake a dietary analysis, take anthropometric measurements and blood samples for anaemia; (3) take stool samples and undertake laboratory analysis for STH infection rates and intensity; (4) arrange for administration of anti-helminth medication.
Term	Commencement Date: 9 October 2019 Completion Date: The date that the Services are completed to the satisfaction of Griffith or 1 April 2021 whichever is the later.
Deliverables and Milestone Dates	The subcontractor will provide the following activities to Griffith in collaboration with the Griffith research team: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Planning Meeting for Chief Investigators: Site visit, meeting with local officials, meeting with 'bondres' producers. (January, 2020) 2. Provision of Workshop (in collaboration with Griffith) –training workshop

	for male/female community volunteers at Udayana University, Bali, late February/early March, 2020. 3. Preparation and planning for 'bondres' production with local company with focus on improving nutrition/diet, hygiene and sanitation particularly relating to parasite infection to be completed by the end of April, 2020. 4. Baseline data collection and, after the 'bondres' presentation, follow-up data collection of knowledge, attitudes and behaviour related to improved nutrition/diet, hygiene and sanitation (using 'Bondres'HELP questionnaire). Follow-up to be 6-8 weeks after the 'bondres' presentation. Baseline data to be collected in March/April, 2020, and follow-up data to be collected in June, 2020. 5. At the same time as the baseline data collection: Stool sample collection to be undertaken; 24-hour dietary recall data to be collected; Food Frequency data to be collected; Haemoglobin levels (Anaemia) to be tested using a finger-prick test; Height and weight to be measured. Samples/Data to be collected by end of April, 2020. 6. Stool analysis from the study participants to be conducted by the Udayana University laboratories; total sample using Kato-Katz/modified flotation procedure. Stool analysis to be completed by July 2020. 7. Data entry from questionnaires ('Bondres'HELP; 24-hour Dietary Recall; Food Frequency; Haemoglobin; Height and Weight (BMI); and Stool samples) to be completed by September, 2020.

- (i) the precise details of any additional services;
- (ii) the time frame of such additional services;
- (iii) the requisite Key Personnel who may be required for

- (c) in the public domain otherwise than due to breach of this Agreement.

10. Protection of Personal Information

- 10.1 The Parties agree and acknowledge that if the Existing Material or Project Material contains Personal Information each must comply with the Information Privacy Act 2009 (Qld) and any other relevant privacy laws (including the Privacy Act 1988 (Cth)). If either Party becomes aware of a breach or suspected breach of any such laws, they shall immediately notify the other Party.

11. Indemnity and Insurance

- 11.1 The Subcontractor indemnifies Griffith against all claims, expenses, losses, damages and costs, loss or damage suffered or incurred by Griffith (however caused, including by the negligence of the Subcontractor) arising from:

- (a) a breach of this Agreement;
- (b) actual or alleged infringement of any third party Intellectual Property rights or other rights in respect of the Services and/or Deliverables; or
- (c) any negligent act or omission or wilful misconduct of the Subcontractor, the Key Personnel, its employees or agents, except to the extent that any negligent act or omission of Griffith contributed to the relevant liability.

- 11.2 The Subcontractor must:

- (a) effect and maintain professional indemnity insurance and public liability insurance in relation to its performance of the Services for the duration of the Term and for a period of 12 months after this Agreement has expired or been terminated; and
- (b) provide evidence of currency of such insurance to Griffith upon request.

12. Termination

- 12.1 Either Party may terminate this Agreement without cause by giving 14 days' notice in writing to the other.

- 12.2 Each Party may terminate this Agreement by notice in writing to the other Party in the event that:

- (a) the Head Contract is terminated;
- (b) the other Party has breached a provision of this Agreement and fails to remedy that breach within 30 days after receiving notice requiring it to rectify the breach;
- (c) the other Party breaches a material provision of this Agreement where that breach is not capable of remedy; or

- (d) the other Party becomes insolvent, in which case the terms of this Agreement terminate on the date specified in the notice, or if no date is specified immediately.

- 12.3 If this Agreement is terminated pursuant to clause 12.1, the effect of termination of this Agreement is that:

- (a) Griffith will be liable to pay the Subcontractor for:
 - (i) the Services rendered before the effective date of termination; and
 - (ii) reasonable costs incurred by the Subcontractor and directly attributable to the termination; and

- (b) the Subcontractor will deliver to Griffith:

- (i) all Project Material (in whatever form) which exists as at the date of termination; and
- (ii) any of Griffith's Existing Material.

- 12.4 Clauses 8 (Intellectual Property), 9 (Confidential Information), 10 (Personal Information) and 11 (Indemnity and Insurance) survive the termination of this Agreement.

12.5 Termination of this Agreement does not affect any accrued rights or remedies of a Party.

13. GST

13.1 The Parties acknowledge that dollar amounts described in this Agreement are stated exclusive of GST.

13.2 If this Agreement or any supply under or in respect of this Agreement becomes subject to GST, and if the recipient of the consideration is liable to GST in relation to any supply under this Agreement, the Parties agree that the amount payable for any supply under or in respect of this Agreement by any Party shall be adjusted by the amount of the GST.

13.3 Each Party agrees to do all things, including providing invoices or other documentation in such form and detail that may be necessary to enable or assist the other party to claim or verify any input tax credit, set off, rebate or refund in relation to any GST payable under this Agreement or in respect of any supply under this Agreement.

14. Miscellaneous

14.1 Any notice given under this Agreement:

- (a) must be in writing and signed by a person authorised by the sender;
- (b) must be delivered to the intended recipient by post or by hand or fax to the address or fax number set out in the Schedule;

(c) will be taken to be duly given or made:

- (i) in the case of delivery in person, when delivered;
- (ii) in the case of delivery by post, two Business Days after the date of posting; and
- (iii) in the case of fax, on receipt by the sender of a transmission control report from the dispatching machine,

but if the result is that a notice would be taken to be given or made on a day which is not a Business Day or is later than

4.00pm (local time), it will be taken to have been duly given or made on the next Business Day.

14.2 This Agreement constitutes the entire agreement between the Parties and supersedes all previous written and oral agreements and understandings reached by the Parties regarding the Services.

14.3 Alterations or variations of this Agreement will not be valid unless in writing and signed by both Parties.

14.4 No rights under this Agreement will be deemed to be waived except where the waiver is in writing and signed by both Parties. A waiver by a Party will not prejudice that Party's rights in respect of any subsequent breach of this Agreement. Any failure by either Party to enforce any clause of this Agreement, any forbearance, delay, or indulgence generated by either Party to the other will not be construed as a waiver of rights under this Agreement.

14.5 Part or all of any provision of this Agreement that is illegal or unenforceable may be severed from this Agreement and the remaining provisions of this Agreement continue in force.

14.6 Each Party must bear its own costs of preparing and executing this Agreement.

14.7 This Agreement shall be governed and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of Queensland, Australia. The Parties submit unconditionally to the exclusive jurisdiction of the Courts of Queensland.

14.8 This Agreement may be signed in any number of counterparts (whether in original, scanned, electronic or facsimile form) and all those counterparts together make one instrument.

14.9 The Parties agree to be bound by any Special Conditions identified in the Schedule and those Special Conditions override the other terms and conditions of this Agreement to the extent of any inconsistency.

MEMORANDUM OF UNDERSTANDING FOR STUDENT EXCHANGE between
Faculty of Medicine, Udayana University
and
Graduate School of Medicine and Faculty of Medicine, School of Medicine, Kobe University

This Memorandum of Understanding is to promote the exchange of students and thereby partly implement the ideas expressed in the Agreement of Academic Cooperation between the two institutions concluded on _____ (date).

1. The Faculty of Medicine, Udayana University (hereinafter referred to as UNUD), and the Graduate School of Medicine and Faculty of Medicine, School of Medicine, Kobe University (hereinafter referred to as KU) will exchange students under the following terms:

- 1.1 Nomination of exchange students

Each exchange student shall be nominated according to the relevant procedure and at the discretion of the home institution. The host institution will admit exchange students according to its established policies and procedures.

- 1.2 Number of exchange students

The number of students to be sent from each institution will not exceed 3 (three) for each year, balancing the number of students over a period of five years.

- 1.3 Duration

In principle, the period of stay for each exchange student at the host institution may be determined by both institutions according to his/her study plan. However, it will not exceed one academic year.

- 1.4 Status of exchange students

The status of each exchange student at KU will be a “non-degree special auditing student”. The status of each exchange student at UNUD will be a “non-degree special auditing student”.

- 1.5 Tuition exemption

The exchange programs are based on the principle of reciprocity. The exchange students will remain enrolled at their home institution where they pay their tuition and other related fees. The host institution will exempt relevant fees for admission, examination and tuition for the exchange students.

- 1.6 Credit transfer

It shall be the sole responsibility of the home institution to decide how many transfer credit units the student may receive for courses taken at the host institution.

- 1.7 Regulations

Each exchange student will be subject to the same rules or regulations as the students of the host institution. In cases where an exchange student fails to observe the host institution's rules or regulations, the student must take full responsibility for his or her behavior. This may conceivably lead to reconsidering further exchange programs.

1.8 Accommodation

The host institution will endeavor to provide exchange students with accommodation. In cases where university-owned accommodation is not available, the host institution will provide exchange students with information on other accommodation options for their perusal. Accommodation costs will be the responsibility of the exchange students.

1.9 Expenses / Insurance

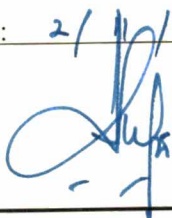

Travel and other incidental expenses, and health and accident insurance will be borne by each exchange student. However, government and/or other scholarships may be used to cover these expenses.

2. Duration, amendment and termination

This Memorandum of Understanding shall remain in force for the period of which the Agreement of Academic Cooperation is valid, commencing on the date of signing by both parties. It may be terminated by either party giving twelve (12) months prior notice to the other party in writing, without prejudice to the completion of ongoing programs. The Memorandum of Understanding may be amended by the exchange of letters between both parties.

This Memorandum of Understanding is written in English in duplicate and both institutions retain one copy of the authentic texts.

MEMORANDUM OF UNDERSTANDING

Between

THE UNIVERSITY OF ADELAIDE, AUSTRALIA

and

UDAYANA UNIVERSITY,
INDONESIA

1. Collaboration

The University of Adelaide and Udayana University wish to collaborate in order to benefit their research and teaching activities, and to further the internationalisation of both parties.

2. Purpose

The purpose of this MOU is to establish a framework within which co-operation may develop between the two institutions. This will occur within the context of the regulations and policies of each party, and subject to the availability of resources.

3. Co-operation

Co-operation between the two parties may include such activities as:

- Exchanges of students and academic staff;
- Joint research activities, including projects, seminars, conferences and public lectures;
- Exchange of publications, academic materials and other information;
- Collaborative degree programs at the undergraduate and postgraduate levels;
- Participation in PhD and Masters by Research programs by staff of either party
- Joint quality assurance and benchmarking;
- Such other projects for mutual benefit that are agreed upon by both parties.

4. Activities

Specific programs or activities will be undertaken under this MOU only after the written agreement of both parties. The terms and conditions of the program or activity, including any financial arrangements, shall be set out in a written Agreement signed by an authorised representative of each party.

5. Liaison

- a) Both parties shall designate a liaison office for this MOU and for any subordinate agreements under this MOU. For the University of Adelaide, the office shall be the Pro Vice-Chancellor (International). For Udayana University, the liaison office shall be Vice-Rector for Planning, Cooperation and Information Affairs.
- b) Each party will endeavour to resolve any difficulties or disagreement in a spirit of co-operation and negotiation at an operational level.

6. Marketing and Publicity

- a) The parties agree to discuss and agree upon appropriate promotion of the activities undertaken collaboratively under this MOU.
- b) Neither party may, without prior approval from the other party or otherwise in accordance with a written agreement between the parties, imply any endorsement by the other party of its products or services.

- c) Any use by one party of the name or logo of the other must be in accordance with the other party's policies and approval processes or otherwise in accordance with a written agreement between the parties.

7 Confidential Information

- a) Each party agrees to treat as confidential all information designated as confidential or which by its nature is confidential or which is disclosed in circumstances importing an obligation of confidence that is obtained from the other party in connection with this MOU or activities undertaken pursuant to this MOU and not disclose such information except:
- to such of its personnel as have a legitimate interest in the confidential information to be disclosed to them;
 - as may be required by applicable law (in which case, if permitted, prior to disclosure, the party must consult with the other party about the form and content of such disclosure); or
 - as the parties may agree in writing.
- b) This clause 7 does not apply to information that is or becomes available in the public domain, is already lawfully known to the receiving party, or has been independently developed by the receiving party, other than as a result of a breach by a party of their confidentiality obligations.
- c) Nothing contained in this MOU or in any disclosures made under this MOU shall create or imply, or be construed as granting to the receiving party any license or other rights in or to the confidential information and/or any intellectual property rights or act as a waiver of any rights that the disclosing University may have to prevent infringement or misappropriation of any intellectual property rights owned or controlled by the disclosing University.

8 Term

This MOU comes into effect when the last signatory signs. It will remain in effect for a period of 5 years from that date. Not less than six months prior to its expiry, the two parties will review its operation and decide whether or not to renew it. Any such renewal shall be signed by an authorised representative of each party, and may include variations to this MOU.

9 Termination

This MOU may be terminated by the written mutual consent of both parties, or by either party giving 60 days written notice to the other party.

10. Status of MOU

This MOU places no financial or legal obligations on either of the parties, nor does it create any legal relationship between them and is not binding on the parties except for clause 6 Marketing and Publicity and clause 7 Confidential Information which are intended to be binding on the parties.
